Experience Canada with TruExperiences Tours

TruExperiences Tours, a boutique tour operator, offers a number of superb independent tours in Canada. Tours range in length from four to ten nights and feature accommodations, sightseeing tours, transportation by train, pre-trip destination information and telephone assistance. Daily departures are available for most tours and air add-ons can be arranged from departure cities throughout Canada. Popular tours include:

Gems of French Canada Tour

Gems of French Canada highlights the culture of two of Canada's French-speaking cities in one four-night tour. The romantic and historical charm of Quebec City is the perfect complement to Montreal's vibrant and upbeat urban appeal. Tours can be arranged to coincide with Montreal's renowned summer festivals, including the Montreal International Jazz Festival taking place from June 25 to July 6, 2010.

Gems of Eastern Canada Tour

Gems of Eastern Canada features the excitement of Toronto, the natural wonder of Niagara Falls, Canada's capital city, Ottawa and the distinctly European and French-speaking metropolises of Montreal and Quebec City. The ten-night tour includes visits to many of Canada's most popular attractions, including the National Gallery of Canada, the Royal Ontario Museum and the CN Tower.

Gems of the Canadian Rockies Tour

Gems of the Canadian Rockies captures the magic of the Canadian Rockies with stays in Banff, Jasper, Kamloops and Vancouver. The highlight of this seven-night tour is the two-day journey on the Rocky Mountaineer train from Jasper to Vancouver. Optional extensions can be arranged in Victoria and Whistler, home of the 2010 Winter Olympics.

Trans-Canada Experience Tour

Trans-Canada Experience, the ultimate Canadian train trip, is often listed on travelers' "must do" lists. Travelers spend two nights in Toronto before boarding VIA Rail's the Canadian for a four-night journey. The Canadian travels between Toronto and Vancouver, crossing the scenic lakes of northern Ontario, touring the western plains of the Prairies and the splendid Canadian Rockies, and finishing its journey on the Pacific coast of British Columbia. Upon arrival in Vancouver, travelers spend three days exploring this spectacular city. Optional extensions can be arranged in Banff, Jasper and Victoria.

As a boutique tour operator, TruExperiences Tours can customize an itinerary to meet specific interests. For example, theatre lovers will want to catch a performance in Toronto, while nature enthusiasts will want more time to enjoy the hiking trails in Jasper National Park. Privately guided tours are also available for pre-formed groups.
